and caused the defeat of Allentown at Union Park yesterday by 3 to 2. In the early innings the game was rather tame, being simply a pitchers' battle between Topham, of Washington, and McKay, of the visitors. In the latter half there were plenty of features, including long hits and fast fielding. With the score 2 to 1 in favor of Washington at the beginning of the eighth, Donovan, the local second baseman, booted a chance and allowed one of the Pennsylvania players to score from third. This evened up the score. In their half the Bandits gave an exhibition of hitting that made the crowd happy. Topham in Form.

Topham, one of the new pitchers, twirled a creditable game, and for five innings let the visitors down with one hit. In the sixth Allentown got one clean drive and beat out two infield hits, but after this Topham settled down and would not have been scored upon again but for an error. Washington made the first run in the third, when Burke was safe on a fielder's choice, and counted on Shaughnessy's double to center. Three singles netted Allentown one in the sixth, and in the eighth Hart, for the visitors, tripled and
